

McElroy Joins LCG

June 18, 2009 Atlanta, GA - LCG Associates, Inc., an institutional investment consulting firm headquartered in Atlanta, has hired James C. (Cam) McElroy, CFA as a Consultant. McElroy has nine years of industry experience and is based out of the Atlanta office. His responsibilities include investment strategy development and investment advice, manager due diligence, and special research projects.

McElroy previously served as a Relationship Manager with Atlantic Trust Private Wealth Management, where he was responsible for advising, constructing, and maintaining customized investment solutions for high-net-worth families, foundations, and endowments. Also during his tenure with Atlantic Trust, he gained valuable experience trading equities, designing performance reports, assuring firm compliance with regulators, and evaluating investment managers in both traditional and alternative asset classes. McElroy began his career as a Junior Financial Analyst with Farr, Miller & Washington in Washington, D.C.

He is CFA Charterholder and a member of the Atlanta Society of Financial Analysts (ASFA). He is also a member of the Atlanta Venture Forum and the Atlanta Association for Corporate Growth. McElroy holds a B.A. in English from Vanderbilt University.

This is the second hire LCG has made in 2009 as John E. Hess, CFA joined LCG as the Director of Manager Due Diligence.

LCG provides investment consulting services for corporations, utilities, endowments, foundations, not-for-profit organizations, healthcare organizations, and other institutional asset pools. Institutional investment consulting is our only business. LCG is independent and 100% employee-owned. For more information on LCG, visit www.lcgassociates.com.
