

LCG Elevates Covey, Dempsey

ATLANTA (March 5, 2020) – LCG Associates, Inc., a national, independent investment consulting firm, promoted Taylor L. Covey, CAIA and Cynthia K. Dempsey, CFA, CPA to Vice President, Co-Director of Private Investments and Director of Operational Due Diligence, respectively. Both employees are based out of the Atlanta office.

“Both Taylor and Cynthia play a vital role in and have made significant contributions to LCG’s research process. They have worked successfully across the firm to ensure a thorough, sound due diligence process that continues to put our clients’ goals first,” said Edward F. Johnson, President and Chief Executive Officer.

“These are well-deserved promotions that reflect their character, capabilities, and intelligence.”

Covey joined LCG in 2007. His consultant responsibilities include investment strategy development, manager due diligence, special research projects, and providing investment advice to clients. In his role as Co-Director of Private Investments, Covey co-leads LCG’s private investments research as well as due diligence and collaborating with clients to implement their private investment allocations. He serves on LCG’s Investment and Risk Management Committees. Covey began his career in the investment industry as an Investment Analyst at LCG.

Covey is a Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (“CAIA”) Charterholder. He graduated from the University of Tennessee with a B.S. in Finance.

Dempsey joined LCG in 2016. Her responsibilities include leading, coordinating, and conducting initial and on-going evaluations of operational policies and procedures of alternative investment managers. She serves on LCG’s Risk Management Committee. Previously, Dempsey was a Partner, Director of Investor Relations at Bay Point Advisors, LLC responsible for leading the marketing and sales activities, including developing new client relationships, creating marketing materials, and positioning of the product’s strategy. Prior to working at Bay Point Advisors, Dempsey was a Senior Portfolio Specialist for Fixed Income at Citadel Asset Management and ING Investment Management.

Dempsey is a CFA Charterholder and is a member of the CFA Society of Atlanta. She is also a Certified Public Accountant (“CPA”). Dempsey graduated with a B.S. in Accounting from the University of Alabama, where she was a Presidential Scholar.
